Exposition
Who are the characters in the story? Describe the setting of the story (provide the line numbers where you found the information).

Rising Action
Explain an important event that took place and that leads to the climax (line numbers).

Rising Action
Explain another important event that took place and that leads to the climax (line numbers).

Climax (also called the turning point)
Explain the most intense event in the story where the tension reaches a peak (line numbers).

Falling Action
Explain an important event that happens after the climax and that leads to the resolution in the story (line numbers).

Falling Action
Explain another important event that happens and that leads to the resolution in the story (line numbers).

Resolution
Explain how the conflict is resolved (line numbers).

Conflict
Explain the major problem in the story (line numbers).

Theme
What could be a theme, or lesson about life, that you’ve learned after reading the story?

Mood
What is the mood of the story?

Point of View
From which point of view is the story told?